

Harvey Jasper Stewart

1850-1950 Centennial History

Harry Jasper Stewart, son of John and Lydia Mandana Rolfe Stewart was born in Lehi, May 2, 1869. He attended the public schools.

His forefathers were builders and contractors so naturally he became a carpenter by trade. With James B. Goates, John Willes, and others, he helped build a great number of homes and public buildings now standing in Lehi. Later in life, he took up farming as a hobby. Throughout life, he was active in different church capacities; in the presidency of some auxiliary organizations and 68th Quorum of the Seventy. He was a High Priest at the time of his death November 13, 1953.

February 20, 1895, he married Hannah Victoria Bone who was born August 3, 1872, daughter of John and Hannah Slater Bone.

To them were born seven children. One died in infancy; living are: Vera Victoria (Mrs. Randal Schow), Raymond Horace, Eva Mae (Mrs George Carson) of Lehi; Harry Glen Ogden, Utah J.B. Salt Lake City,; Hannah Izola,, (Mrs. John S. Lewis), Orem, Utah; nineteen grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. From this group have come ten missionaries for the Latter-day Saint Church, nine served their country in war, one gave his life. They have all held with honor many responsible positions in communities and Church. The sons are successful contractors and builders.

Victoria and Harry Stewart taught their children honor, trust, worthiness, industry, and righteousness by example.
